

ALTISPHERE HOSTED PHONE

Communication that works for your Business

ALTITUDE COMMUNICATIONS HAS DEVELOPED ALTISPHERE, OUR CLOUD OR HYBRID BASED PHONE SOLUTION WITH YOUR BUSINESS IN MIND. IT IS A HIGH QUALITY, FEATURE RICH OFFERING THAT CAN GROW WITH YOUR COMPANY AS NEEDS CHANGE.

AltiSphere is based in Alberta and all of the data and infrastructure is kept in Canada. The core system, the user’s phones, and applications are all Enterprise Grade. Our team of passionate employees will support you through your journey with us. We keep it simple and pain free so your team can focus on the business.

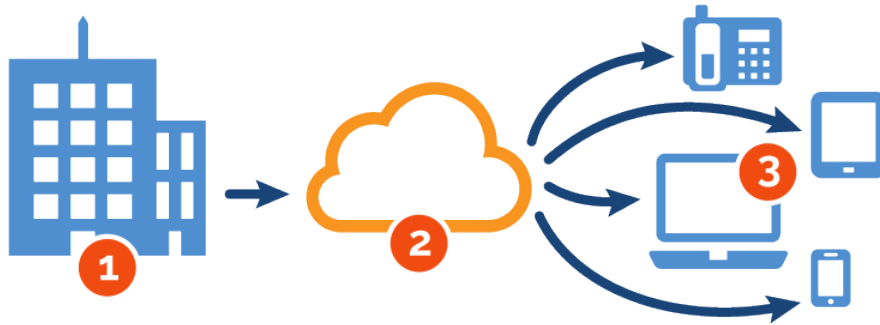

AltiSphere is a premium VoIP business communications solution that adds value to every area of your organization. This means providing impactful tools to your team which ensures a truly Unified Communication solution is at their fingertips. No matter your size, budget, or number of locations, AltiSphere has a solution that will work for you. Your company can focus IT resources on more important initiatives because AltiSphere is a fully managed cloud service.

Located in a secure Tier 3 Canadian data centre, AltiSphere guarantees your data stays north of the 49th parallel. Built in redundancies and frequent back-ups mean you don’t need to worry about how the technology works and can focus instead on how it makes your business work.

ALTISPHERE IS A PREMIUM VOIP BUSINESS PHONE SOLUTION THAT ADDS VALUE TO EVERY AREA OF YOUR ORGANIZATION.

1 AltiSphere Data Centre

Houses the AltiSphere infrastructure, voice applications, IM/Presence, desktop control, mobility, work group and call centre applications.
